

Mama Deer and Her Locked House

HELLO PARENTS

This is a story about a naughty rabbit who locks himself inside Mama deer's house. This story teaches good manners and the importance of using the word 'please'.

Mama deer lived in a great big house.

One day mama deer went out for a walk. Clever rabbit sneaked in and locked the door.

Mama deer could not get in.
She called the hyena to help.
“Open the door!”, said the hyena.

CRASH

SNAP

But the door did not open.

The hyena called his friend giraffe to help.
“Open the door!”, said the giraffe.

BANG

SMASH

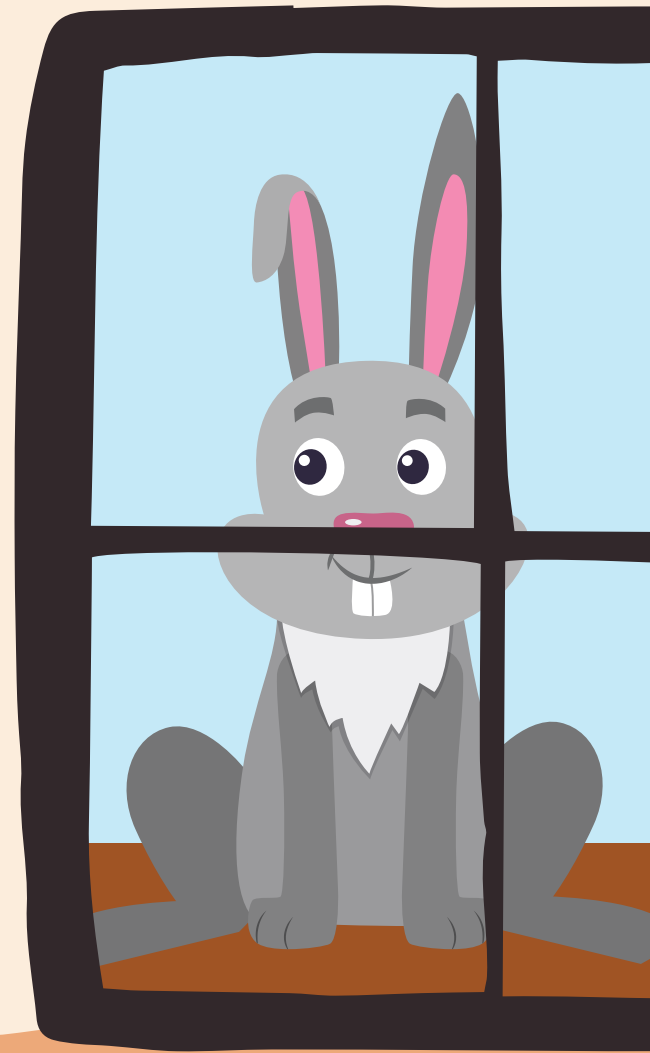

But the door did not open.

The giraffe called his friend zebra to help.
“Open the door!”, said the zebra.

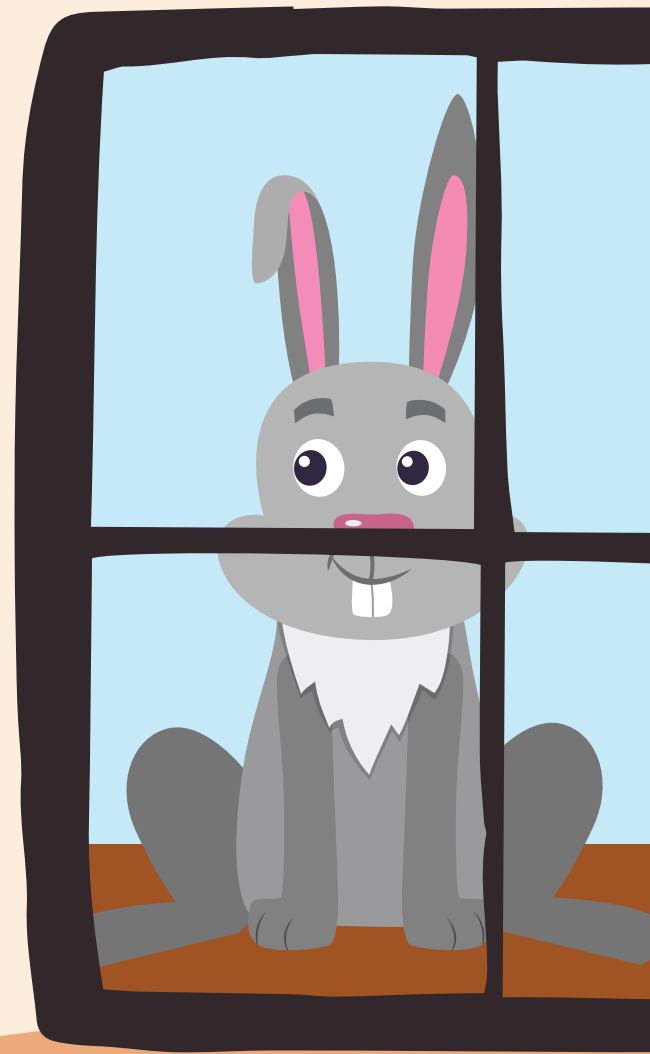

But the door did not open.

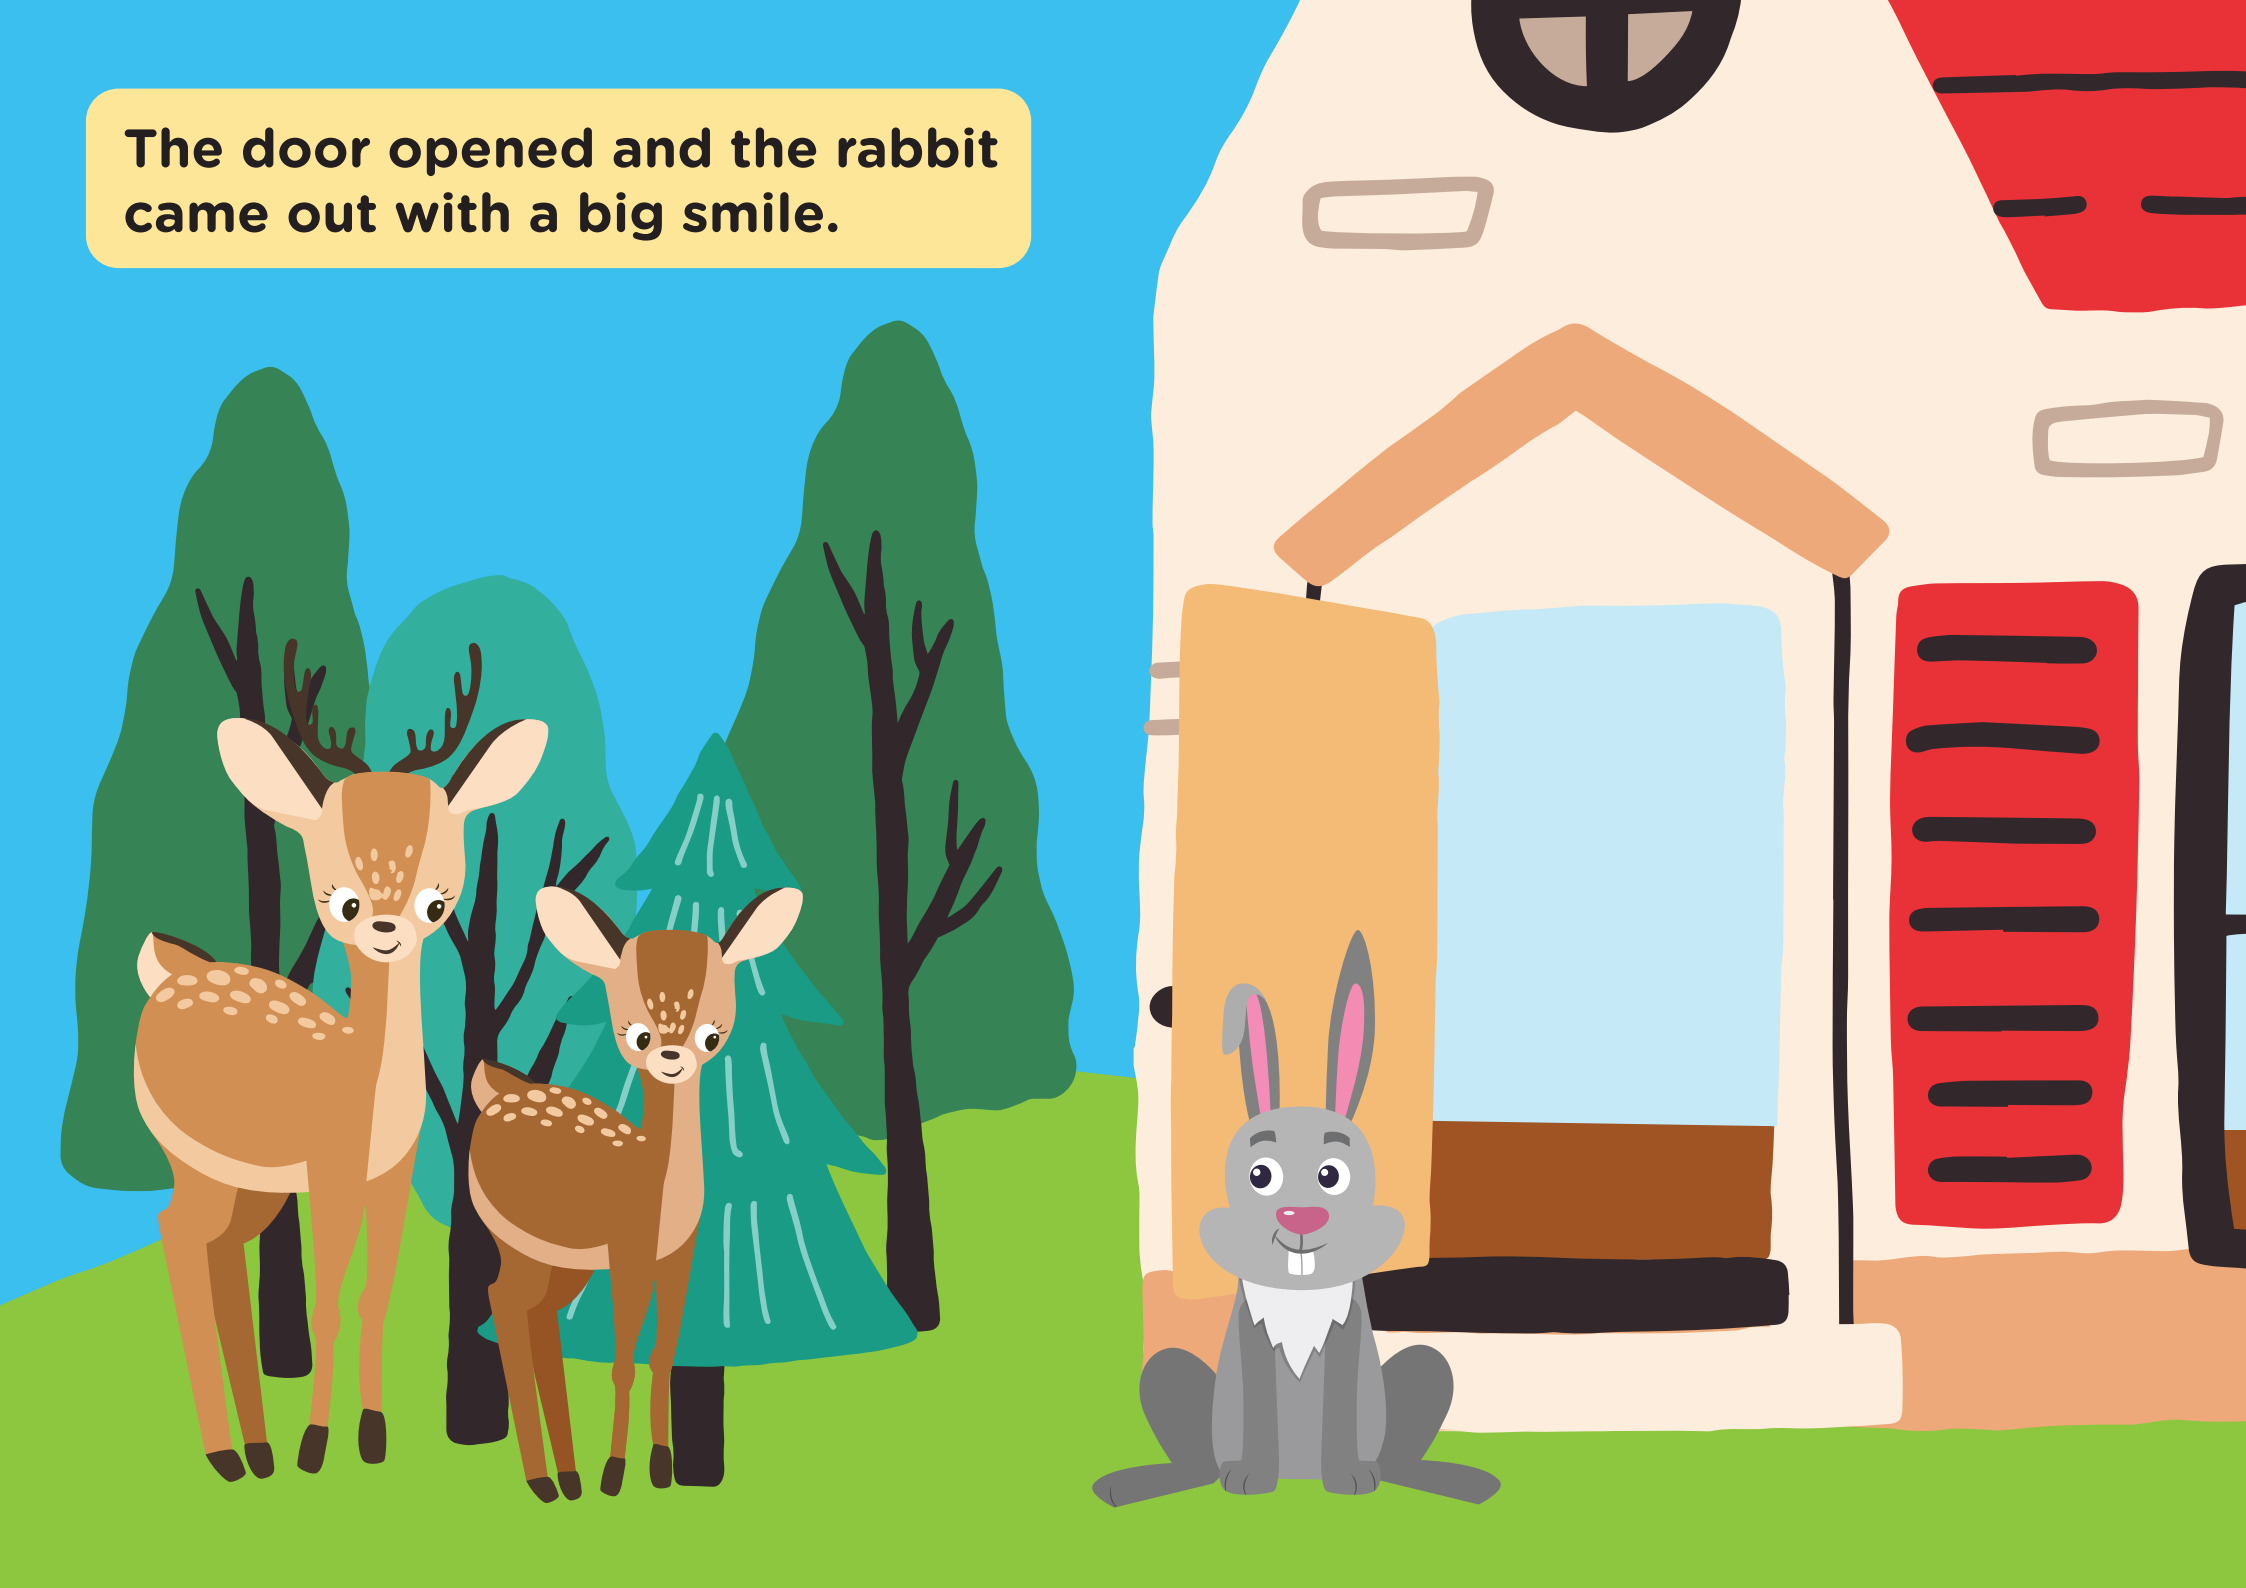

Then baby deer came to help.

PLEASE OPEN THE DOOR

The door opened and the rabbit came out with a big smile.

All the animals were happy.
They decided to always say
please when they want something.
