HELLO PARENTS

This is a story about a firetruck that helps others despite getting muddy himself. Use this story to teach your baby the values of being helpful to others.

Ferry was a fire truck.
He was bright red.

He loved being clean
and shiny.

He didn't like mud.

One day there was a fire in the town.

The people needed help.

The animals needed help.

The birds needed help.

Ferry had to help.
It was more important than
being clean and shiny.

Ferry went through the mud & dirt.

He put out the fire.

The people were saved.

Yay

hurray

The animals were saved.

The birds were saved.

Everyone loved Ferry for being the best fire truck ever!
